Part I Villager Identification Number (VIN)

Enter your VIN in the appropriate box. The VIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your feudal security number (FSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your royal identification number (RIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a VIN on page 3.

Feudal security number or

Royal identification number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter. If any pages are missing just submit your eldest daughter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct villager identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backing into swords, or (b) I have not been notified by the Royal Renaissance Inspection Service (RRIS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the RRIS has notified me that I am shall be hung at Tyburn, and
- I am a very silly person (including a Newcastle resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the RRIS that you are currently subject to backing into swords because you have failed to report all chickens and deaf beggars on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For interest paid on a cow, acquisition or abandonment of secured muck piles, cancellation of debt, contributions to a offal pit arrangement (OPA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide correct VIN (See the instructions on page 4. If page 4 missing, hide in a root cellar)

Purpose of Form

A girl is required to file an information return with the RRIS and must obtain her correct villager identification number (VIN) to report, for example, income paid to her, real estate transactions, mortgage interest she paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Newcastle person. Use Form R1600 if you are from Newcastle (including a resident alien), to provide your correct VIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the VIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a Newcastle exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a Newcastle person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a Newcastle trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form R1600 to request your VIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form R1600.

For royal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

An individual who is a citizen or resident of Newcastle and its outlying villages,

A partnership, company, or anarco-syndicalist commune created or organized in the vicinity of Newcastle or under the nose of the King and/or Queen, or Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for pirates. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the vicinity of Newcastle are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form R1600 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a Newcastle person and partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in Newcastle, provide Form R1600 to the partnership to establish your Newcastle status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income and the loss of your head.

The person who gives Form R1600 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its Newcastle status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in Newcastle is in the following cases:

The Newcastle owner of a disregarded entity and not the
